Information for trans and non-binary people on photo ID for the May 2023 English local elections

The Electoral Commission

On Thursday 4 May 2023, local elections are taking place across England.

At these elections, you will need to bring photo ID to be able to vote at a polling station.

This booklet will explain which forms of photo ID you can use to vote. It also explains how to apply for a free voter ID document, known as a Voter Authority Certificate, if you need one.

If you have any questions or would like to obtain this information in an accessible format, go to electoralcommission.org.uk/voterID, call our helpline on 0800 328 0280 or scan the QR code below.

This booklet has been produced by the Electoral Commission.

The Electoral Commission is the independent body which oversees elections and regulates political finance in the UK. We work to promote public confidence in the democratic process and ensure its integrity.

Are there other ways to vote?

Voting by post

You don't need to provide photo ID to vote by post.

18

To apply to vote by post, you'll need to complete a postal vote application form and make sure it arrives with your local council by 5pm on Tuesday 18 April 2023.

You will receive your ballot paper in the post. Complete and return your ballot paper, ensuring you leave enough time for it to arrive at your local council by 10pm on Thursday 4 May. If you can't post your postal vote pack in time, you can take it to your polling station or to your local council office on polling day.

Voting by proxy

(allowing someone you trust to vote on your behalf)

25

To apply to vote by proxy, complete an application form and send it to your local council to arrive by 5pm on Tuesday 25 April 2023.

The person you choose to vote on your behalf will need to go to your polling station to vote and will need to show their own photo ID to be able to cast your vote. They will not need to show your ID when voting on your behalf.

In an emergency where you cannot go to the polling station in person, you can apply for an emergency proxy up to 5pm on Thursday 4 May.

For more information or to get a postal or proxy application form, visit electoralcommission.org.uk/voter or call our helpline on 0800 328 0280.

How do
I register to vote?

17

The deadline to register to vote in the local elections on 4 May 2023 is 11:59pm on Monday 17 April 2023.

If you've never registered, have changed your name, or moved house, register to vote online at www.gov.uk/register-to-vote. You can also apply by completing a paper application form.

It's important to make sure your details are up to date on the electoral register. You do not need to provide your gender when registering to vote.

If you need help registering to vote, or want to request an application form, contact your local council. To find contact details for your local council visit electoralcommission.org.uk/voter or call our helpline on 0800 328 0280.

Which elections am I voting in?

Local elections are taking place across 230 areas in England on Thursday 4 May 2023, including local council, mayoral and parish elections.

To find out if there are elections happening in your area go to electoralcommission.org.uk/voterID

Or call our helpline on 0800 328 0280.

What will happen at the polling station?

Staff at the polling station are there to help, and all staff will receive training on how to check ID sensitively. When you arrive, a staff member will:

1. Ask for your name and check that you are on the electoral register
2. Ask to see your ID
3. Check that your ID looks like you

They will then cross your name off the register and give you your ballot paper.

Staff will not be checking the gender marker, address or nationality on your ID.

They will then give you your ballot paper and direct you to complete it at a polling booth as usual.

A private area will be available at the polling station, so you can choose to have your photo ID viewed in private if you prefer. This might be a separate room, or an area separated by a privacy screen, depending on the polling station.

What should I do if I experience issues at the polling station?

If you experience any issues at the polling station or want to give feedback about your experience, you should contact the electoral services team at your local council.

To find their contact details visit electoralcommission.org.uk/voter or call our helpline on 0800 328 0280.

What information do I need to give when I apply for a Voter Authority Certificate?

When applying for a Voter Authority Certificate, you will need to provide your:

- Name
- Date of birth
- Address
- National Insurance number

If you don't know your National Insurance number, or don't have one, you can still apply. Your council will contact you to request alternative proof of your identity.

Voters do not need to provide their gender when applying for a Voter Authority Certificate, but they need to apply using the same name they used to register to vote.

You will also need to submit a photograph with your application. The requirements for the photograph are similar to the requirements for a passport photo. Your local council can take your photo for you.

Find out more about the requirements at electoralcommission.org.uk/voterID

Or call our helpline on 0800 328 0280.

Which forms of ID can I use to vote?

You will only need to show one form of photo ID, and it needs to be the original version and not a photocopy.

You can use any of the following accepted forms of photo ID to be able to vote at a polling station.

	International travel Passport		Local travel Certain concessionary travel cards
	Driving and parking <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Driving licence (including provisional licence) • Blue badge 		Other government-issued documents <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Biometric immigration document • Defence identity card • Certain national identity cards
	Proof of age Identity card with PASS mark (Proof of Age Standards Scheme)

Expired photo ID will be accepted if the photo remains a good enough likeness for the polling station staff to be able to identify you.

The name on your ID should be the same name you used to register to vote. You do not need to show photo ID that includes a gender marker.

If you don't have photo ID, you feel worried about using an existing form of ID which has a gender marker, or you aren't sure whether you still look like the photo on your ID, you should apply for a Voter Authority Certificate. A Voter Authority Certificate will not have a gender marker.

For more information about which forms of ID will be accepted visit electoralcommission.org.uk/voterID

Or call our helpline on 0800 328 0280.

Applying for a Voter Authority Certificate
